

ABSTRACT

Diploma Thesis for the degree of Bachelor on the topic "Resource provision of enterprise activity (on the example of PJSC "Kyiv Central Design Bureau of armature production") contains 103 pages, 26 tables, 10 pictures, 2 applications. The list of references includes 60 names.

The purpose of the work. Substantiation of ways to increase efficiency of resource provision by the enterprise.

Achieving this goal leads to the following tasks:

- to get acquainted with the term "resource provision of the enterprise";
- to research management systems of resource provision of the enterprise .
- to identify market trends of armature;
- to research personnel and logistical support of the enterprise activity;
- to analyze financial, informational and infrastructural support of PJSC "Kyiv Central Design Bureau of armature production".
- to determine the prospects of the enterprise and the corresponding changes of resource provision;
- to evaluate the effectiveness of the proposed measures.

Research methods. General and specific methods were used in the paper; data of statistical reporting, internal, particularly financial statements of the enterprise were used for analytical information. The theoretical basis of the study are works of leading foreign and domestic scientists, that are devoted to the issues of increasing the efficiency of enterprise production.

Results of the study will allow enterprises rationally use their production facilities considering market trends and priorities of enterprise competitiveness.

Keywords: resources, resource security, competitiveness, system, personnel support, informational support, financial support, logistical support.