

Subject of Discipline "Technology transfer" – the process of technology transfer, content and characteristics of the usage of technology.

The main purpose of teaching is to develop students' knowledge systems on technology transfer, the specifics of its implementation in terms of Ukrainian enterprises; developing students' skills in audit process and the introduction of intellectual property rights to economic turnover.

The main tasks to be solved in the process of teaching are:

Knowledge

fundamentals and categorical apparatus of technology transfer and the foundations of legal regulation in this area;

technological methods of auditing and monitoring; principles and methods of valuation of intellectual property in terms of determining their commercial potential;

features of innovation commercialization at the company.

Ability

to choose appropriate way of technology transfer, taking into account all factors that determine its choice;

evaluate the commercial potential of the technology to determine the socio-economic efficiency of new technologies at the enterprise;

determine technology value;

conduct ongoing monitoring of the use of IP at the enterprise, to develop measures to stimulate intellectual activity and implementation of its results in the production;

conduct a patent search;

carry out technological audit of the company and analyze its results.

Experience

registration of contracts for the acquisition, creation, sale and transfer of intellectual property;

license negotiations;

the introduction intellectual property rights into economic turnover.