

Credit module "Information systems in management" refers to the cycle of disciplines fundamental, natural science and general preparation of students of faculty of management and marketing specialty "Management", "International Management", "Management of innovation" and based on the knowledge that students acquired during the study of such subjects as "Principles of Management", "Computer Networks and Telecommunications" and "Information and computer technology."

Credit module "Information systems in management" consists of a series of lectures and laboratory work. During the laboratory work students acquire professional competencies of universal software use modern information systems and technologies in management and administration (volume - 3 credits in ECTS).