

Credit module "Business Management" refers to the cycle of disciplines of free choice students. The program is designed for students in 3rd year of faculty of management and marketing specialty "Management", "International Management", "Management of innovation" and based on the knowledge that students have acquired during the study of such subjects as "Principles of Management "" The business and employment law "," Computer Networks and Telecommunications "and" Information and computer technology. "

Credit module "Business Management" consists of a series of lectures, practical and laboratory work. During practical laboratory work and students get acquainted with the technology and organization of effective functioning of the office and acquire skills rational organization of information flows and communications; as well as the skills of the most popular software used to solve office problems (volume - 3 credits in ECTS).