

Law

Law-making activity is an important area of human activity. Legislative regulation contributes to the steady development of the national economy, combining and harmonizing interests of citizens.

To build a legal state and civil society in Ukraine is important to the formation of a new, higher level of legal awareness and legal culture of population. Great importance in the light of the legal education becomes that for future specialists with higher education is a prerequisite for professionalism and successful performance of their duties.

The purpose of teaching - training specialists management profile that will work in terms of the rule of law and market economy. In professional terms of the discipline aimed at regulation of industrial relations. Future specialist should master the necessary minimum legal knowledge as a prerequisite for successful production activities.

The objective of the discipline is to develop the student: Knowledge of basic information on the theory of law, basics of civil, labor, family and criminal law; skills to navigate the current legislation, analyze the content of regulations to apply theoretical knowledge and principles of regulations in practical life; skills for working with regulatory acts, the correct use of legal terminology, correct application of the law in the industrial and service activity.

Of the course students should consider getting complex knowledge of the theory of law, basics of civil, family, labor, administrative and criminal law Ukraine gaining skills and practical application of this knowledge.